

Downtown Lancaster

The City of Lancaster is home to six murals portraying culture, history and community, as well as a wide variety of restaurants, museums, galleries and more.

Use the printer-friendly mural trail guide and trail directions on your drive! (pdf format)

1. Lancaster House North

Jenny Pakradooni and Karen Hunt, 2006

355 N. Prince Street, Lancaster

This mural showcases the city as an emerging entertainment spot.

2. Women's Expression

Michelle Ortiz, 2003

223 W. Walnut Street, Lancaster

This mural represents the variety of women within Lancaster and their impact toward the community.

3. West End

Karen Hunt, 2002

304 N. Mulberry Street, Lancaster

This mural depicts a montage of the variety of architectural styles in the historic neighborhood.

4. Grant Street

Karen Hunt, 2005

100 block of Grant Street, Lancaster

This mural was inspired by artist Charles Demuth and showcases significant buildings in the area.

5. Eastern Market

Justin Lorenzen, James Murray and Lisa Gauker, 2007

308 King Street, Lancaster

This mural showcases the mix of cultures within downtown Lancaster and the Eastern Market, the building in which the mural resides.

6. Rise with Strength

Justin Lorenzen, James Murray, Lisa Gauker, Nicole Ferree and Amanda Chronister, 2005

681 Manor Street, Lancaster

This mural represents the need to build strong communities through children.