Cure cabin fever in PA Dutch Country

September 2007

Pennsylvania Dutch Convention & Visitors Bureau

Greetings from Lancaster County!

PA Dutch winter stories cure cabin fever!

The holiday madness has quieted, the decorations are packed away, and everyone's settled in for a long winter, but that's no excuse to let your travel stories hibernate as well! Plan now for some fantastic value season "cabin fever" getaway stories to Lancaster County, where there are great deals to be had and entirely new aspects of the destination to explore. Use these chilly winter months to encourage your readers to explore our offbeat museums, our funky galleries, gourmet dining, and more, and you'll learn why we're considered one of the top B&B destinations in the East!

Your trip could include:

Gallery Tours: 2008 is the year to "Explore Your Creative Side" in Lancaster County, and there's perhaps no better way to do so than with visits to our amazing art galleries. Step inside out of the cold and marvel at fantastic paintings, sculpture, multimedia, and more. Visit A.R.T. Research for some truly incredible examples of bronze sculpture – and one of Lancaster County's hidden gems, or visit the Demuth Museum for a look at the life of one of our most famous artists.

Offbeat Museums: Lancaster County's home to more than two dozen tucked-away museums – where you can learn the quirks, the history, and the stories behind everything from quilts to cars. Check out the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania for a special look at locomotives of the past or get a slice of Pennsylvania German life at Landis Valley Museum. Visit unique collections at the American Military Edged Weaponry Museum, or "time" things just right, and check out the National Watch & Clock Museum.

Bed and Breakfasts: With more than 160 B&Bs ranging from lavish country estates to cozy townhomes and working farms, a B&B getaway in Lancaster County's always a great story, but this winter, there are deals to be had! What better way to entice your readers than with tales of roaring fireplaces, piping hot mugs of cocoa, and magnificent country views.

Outdoor fun: If staying inside for the winter's no fun for you, never fear – you can bundle up, brave the elements, and still have a fantastic time this winter! Check out an Amish buggy ride, where when the snow falls, sleighs replace buggies as the preferred mode of transportation, or head to Clipper Magazine Stadium, home of the Lancaster Barnstormers, where at this time of year, an ice rink replaces the baseball diamond.

...and much more!
