For those a little older, try the thrills and spills of Hersheypark and samples at the adjacent Hershey's Chocolate World, or for those who want to become part of the action themselves, the whole family can get into the spirit of merrie olde England at the Pennsylvania Renaissance Faire, where you may become part of the Human Chess Match, be rescued by a dashing knight, or even meet the Queen herself!*

Trains, Trains, Trains

In the quaint village of Strasburg, train enthusiasts will find themselves in locomotive paradise. Take a ride on the Strasburg Rail Road for a look at what steam engine travel was really like. Head across the street to the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania for a look at engines through the ages, or check out locomotives of the miniature variety at the National Toy Train Museum. At Herr's Snack Factory, you'll observe as thousands of pounds of potato chips, pretzels, cheese curls, and more head off the assembly line and into grocery store shelves. Sample warm potato chips just off the line – there's truly nothing like it!
